Jethro Tull Endorsed App

TAMPA BAY, FL – January 29, 2018 – Fustino Brothers, Inc, (FBI) a powerful apps building company today announced the updated release of the 'Jethro Tull' endorsed app. The enhanced Jethro Tull app was inspired by the 3 Fustino Brothers passionate appreciation for Ian Anderson's musical genius. Ian Anderson of Jethro Tull, the legendary British progressive rock band, have well over 75 published CDs/DVDs spanning 6 decades and are still touring strong! Currently Ian Anderson has a hit with Jethro Tull The String Quartet CD. For 2018 their 50th anniversary tour is already under way.

About the Fustino Brothers - Background

Russell Fustino (Russ' Toolshed Network) – New Port Richey FBI's President/CEO, a Microsoft MVP in app platform development and publisher of FBI Apps Software Daily online newsletter - "We would love nothing more than to have Jethro Tull in the pocket of fans worldwide, young and old. Tull has provided much entertainment in our family and this is our way of saying Thank You."

Richard Fustino, FBI's Chief Audio Engineer, founder of Steele Productions, song writer (500+ original songs), guitar teacher of 50+ years at Matt's Music (Tonawanda NY) and 10+ years at Crossroads Music Center (Williamsville NY) says, "I was turned on to Jethro Tull listening to their 3rd album Benefit in 1970. I could not stop playing it. To Cry You a Song became my anthem. Then I turned my brothers on to the album, in fact still play it, and enjoy teaching the music from it. We all attended the Aqualung Tour as our first concert together. And recently attended their latest tour in New York and Florida. I am so happy to help 'benefit' Tull fans worldwide" and now provide an easy access through our 'Living Museum' app.

Gary Fustino, FBI Apps' VP, dba: Design For Communication, founder of InBusinessLinks Network, eServices Director for Bluffs Business Association, with ambassador status from both Tampa Bay's Saint Petersburg and Connecticut's Midstate Chambers and publisher of the 5 days a week online newsletter TIPSnBYTES - "The key to our success is building powerful and rich content apps". Tull's fabulous album art and music have been a creative inspiration especially with their uplifting array of graphic art."
